AyuAware Health Section - Complete Visual Specification

Hybrid Chat + Card Design

Overview

The Health section is the primary deep dive into the user's overall wellbeing through the lens of Ayurvedic principles. It centers around the CHI (Constitutional Health Index) score and breaks down into 7 key pillars of health.

Design Philosophy

Guided Discovery Through Conversation + Cards:

- Twin introduces concepts naturally
- Educational content woven into first-time experience
- Cards provide dense, scannable information
- Deep dives available on demand
- Actions embedded contextually
- Protocol creation and shop links where relevant

Your CHI reflects steady improvement this ║ week. Good recovery patterns in your HRV  ║ indicate strong resilience. However, a    ║ slight Kapha imbalance is showing up in:  ║
• Lower than usual activity levels      ║
• Mild morning sluggishness             ║
• Preference for heavy, oily foods      ║
Contributing Positively:                ║
• Consistent sleep schedule ✓           ║
• Morning meditation practice ✓         ║
• Balanced meal timing ✓                ║
Areas for Improvement:                  ║
• Increase morning movement             ║
• Lighter breakfast choices             ║
• More energizing activities            ║

Expanded Agni Card

🔥 Agni (Digestive Fire)

[Circular Chart] 68%
↓ 8% from optimal (76%)

Current State: Manda Agni (Slow Digestion)

💡 What This Means:
Your digestive fire is dampened, leading to incomplete digestion and Ama (toxin) accumulation. Food isn't being fully transformed into nourishment.

Symptoms I've Noticed:

- Afternoon energy crashes (7×/week)

- Bloating after lunch (5×/week)
- Cravings for sweets (daily pattern)
- Sluggish mornings (4×/week)
- Undigested food in stool (noted 2×)

Contributing Factors:

- Late dinner times (after 8pm)
- Cold/raw foods in morning
- Insufficient movement after meals
- Eating while stressed or distracted
- Too much liquid with meals

Agni Strength Throughout Day:

[Line Chart Showing Daily Agni Curve]

6AM: 45% (Low - just waking)
12PM: 85% (Peak - strongest digestion)
8PM: 52% (Declining - dinner challenge)

💡 Insight: Your Agni peaks at noon, making lunch your best time for the largest, heaviest meal.

How to Improve Agni:

Immediate Actions:
✓ Eat main meal at lunch (12-1pm)
✓ Sip ginger tea before meals
✓ Take 10-minute walk after eating
✓ Avoid cold drinks with food
✓ Practice mindful, calm eating

Foods to Favor:
- Warm, cooked foods
- Ginger, cumin, fennel
- Easily digestible grains

Foods to Avoid:
- Heavy, oily, fried foods
- Cold, raw foods in excess
- Ice-cold beverages

      Excellent Alignment

Your Birth Constitution:
═══════════════════════════════
Pitta 60% • Vata 25% • Kapha 15%

💡 What This Means:
You have a predominantly Pitta constitution with secondary Vata influence. This shapes your natural tendencies, strengths, and vulnerabilities.

Your Natural Strengths:
• Sharp intellect and focus
• Strong, efficient digestion
• Moderate, athletic build
• Goal-oriented and determined

Your Tendencies:
• Run warm, prefer cool weather
• Can become intense or critical
• Competitive nature

Pitta 45% • Vata 40% • Kapha 15%

Compared to Prakriti:
• Vata ↑ 15% (increased from baseline)
• Pitta ↓ 15% (decreased from baseline)
• Kapha → Same as baseline

⚠️ Vata Imbalance Detected:
━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━━

Signs of Excess Vata:
• Restlessness and anxiety
• Dry skin and hair
• Scattered thoughts
• Irregular digestion
• Light, interrupted sleep

Likely Causes:
• Irregular schedule this week
• Late nights (past midnight 3×)
• Cold, dry weather
• Increased stress/activity

How to Balance:
• Establish regular routines
• Warm, grounding foods

• Oil massage (Abhyanga)
• Calming practices (meditation, yoga)
• Earlier bedtime

Part 7: Navigation & Flow Patterns

7.1 Scroll Experience

User scrolls through Health section in this order:

1. CHI Overview Card (collapsed)
2. Twin message introducing pillars
3. Seven Pillars Grid Card
4. User can tap any pillar to expand inline
5. Additional Score Cards (Dynamic Fluctuation, Metabolic Intensity, System Energy)
6. Twin offers protocol creation
7. Educational content available via info icons

Scroll Behavior:

- Smooth momentum scrolling
- Cards fade in as they enter viewport
- Sticky header (Health title bar)
- "Scroll to top" button after 2 screen heights

7.2 Deep Linking

Users can deep link directly to specific pillars:

- `/health` - Main CHI overview
- `/health/chi` - CHI detail
- `/health/prakriti` - Prakriti detail
- `/health/vikriti` - Vikriti detail
- `/health/agni` - Agni detail
- `/health/ojas` - Ojas detail
- `/health/manas` - Manas detail
- `/health/nidra` - Nidra detail
- `/health/prana` - Prana detail

When deep linking:

- Show CHI overview first briefly
- Then scroll to and expand requested pillar
- Twin introduces the pillar contextually

7.3 State Persistence

Remember user preferences:

- Which cards are expanded
- Scroll position
- Last viewed pillar
- Return users to same position

On return to Health section:

- Refresh data
- Maintain scroll position
- Show "Updated just now" indicator

Part 8: Mobile Specifications

Spacing & Layout

- Screen margins: 16px
- Card padding: 20px (collapsed), 24px (expanded)
